

Dear Colleagues,

Lund University is a member of the EUGLOHRIA consortium: The European Alliance for Global Health – Transformation Through Joint Research and Innovation Action (EUGLOHRIA | EUGLOH). EUGLOHRIA aims to establish a world-class higher education, research, and innovation alliance to address current adequately and future Global Health challenges.

We hereby kindly invite you to a joint two-day digital conference on the topic of pandemics and COVID-19 related research, organized by Lund University on 16-17 May 2022.

The main objectives of the EUGLOHRIA seeding conference for joint pandemics research are:

1. To encourage the exchange of new scientific and innovative insights and ideas on pandemics and COVID-19 challenges;
2. To facilitate the formation of new research collaborations within and between partners within the EUGLOHRIA consortium;
3. To promote and support joint research applications to external funding agencies;

“The EUGLOHRIA seeding conference for joint pandemics research” aims to facilitate networking and support research collaborations in pandemics research. Participation is free of charge. For registration and abstract submission, please visit the registration page of the event: The EUGLOHRIA Seeding Conference For Joint Pandemics Research

The final deadline for Registration and Abstract Submission is 8 April 2022.

We look forward to your participation!
